STILLWATER TOWNSHIP
WASHINGTON COUNTY,
MINNESOTA

ORDINANCE NO. 42

AN ORDINANCE TO PROMOTE THE GENERAL HEALTH AND WELFARE OF THE COMMUNITY BY PROTECTING THE ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL BEAUTY OF THE TOWNSHIP FROM IMPAIRMENT OR DESTRUCTION AND TO PRESERVE AND ENHANCE THE ENVIRONMENT

The Town Board of the Township of Stillwater hereby ordains:

SECTION I

a) Regulations of the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency and of the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources are hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein as if fully set out.

b) Definitions. For purposes of this ordinance, the definition of terms shall be as in M.S.A. 116 B.02 which is hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein as if fully set out.

SECTION II Purpose

This ordinance is directed to timely prevent adverse environmental and ecological happenings and to promote enhancement of all natural resources, including but not limited to air, water (subsurface and surface), land and to protect and preserve the natural asthetics and phenomena.

SECTION III Requirements and Procedures

a) Other than for tilling and using land for agricultural purposes no significant disturbances to the terrain, the growth thereon above or below land or water, shall be made without prior approval and special use permit issued by the Town Board of Supervisors.

b) Any person or corporation desiring approval and special use permit, shall make application to the Town Board in writing, stating in detail the disturbances to be made, the location of the property and the reason or reasons for this action. If the Town Board deems the disturbance to be made is of a significant nature, it shall order a public hearing to be held by the Planning Commission in accordance with that procedure as prescribed in Stillwater Township Ordinance No. 17, Subd. 3, Section 9. After review of all testimony as presented at the public hearing, the Town Board may either grant or deny the application for special use permit. Said action shall be taken at the Board's next official meeting after the public hearing.

SECTION IV Penalties

Any person who violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) and/or by imprisonment for not to exceed ninety (90) days for each offense. Each day that a violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense.

SECTION V Separability

If any chapter, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion of this code is for any reason held invalied or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions hereof.

SECTION VI Effective Date

This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication.
