

ORDINANCE NO. 77

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 63 RELATING TO MINING PERMITS

The Town Board of Stillwater amends Ordinance No. 63
as follows:

Chapter 6 of the Washington County Model Code is hereby amended to add Section 305 as follows:

Section 305. Any applicant for an annual permit who submits a five year reclamation plan which is approved and accepted by Washington County and the Town of Stillwater must apply for an annual permit. The Town may waive the public hearing for any such applicant upon the submission of all information required by the Town Board to verify compliance with the five year reclamation plan. At the expiration of such five year reclamation plan the applicant shall reapply for an annual permit in accordance with this ordinance.

Effective Date. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication according to law.

Dated: July 28, 1983.
